DEV SANSKRITI

Dr. Pranav Pandya

Chancellor

Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya Gayatri Teerth - Shantikunj, Haridwar

Dr. Pranav Pandya, a Gold medalist in Medicine (MD) from MGM Medical college, Indore in 1975, preferred to stay in India and serve humanity and Indian Culture rather than accept lucrative job offers in the US. He worked as a physician for only four years before joining the Brahmavarchas Research Institute as a Director, in 1979. During his brief tenure as physician at MGM Medical College, Indore & BHEL at Haridwar & Bhopal, he not only worked with eminent Scientists but also published research papers on the treatment of psychosomatic diseases.

Having permanently settled in Shantikunj, the head quarters of Yug Nirman Mission since 1978, Dr Pandya has devoted his life to establish the spiritual aspects of Indian Culture on a scientific basis through extensive tours and establishment of branches of the organization, not only in India but several foreign countries including U.S.A., Canada, U.K., Denmark, Norway, Australia, Fiji, New Zealand, South Africa, Kenya, etc. In continuance of these efforts, he has presented scientific aspect of Indian culture to the World parliament of religions held in Chicago (USA) in 1993 and Capetown in 1999. Doctor Sahab, as he is popularly known has participated in several conferences and seminars held at Cambridge University, Oxford University, Harvard University, University of California, Los Angeles and several other Universities to disseminate the message of Indian Culture.

Dr Pranav Pandya, has two distinctions to his credit, addressing a joint session of House of Lords & House of commons in UK in February in 1992 and directing the Watershed Development Scheme that has been extended all over India for harvesting rain water.

As in-charge of the personality development and moral education training program during 1994 - 2000, Dr Pandya has trained over 35000 Indian officers of Central & State Government.

Presently, besides being the Director of Bramavarchas Research Institute, Dr. Pranav Pandya is the Head of All World Gayatri Pariwar, Chancellor, Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya, Editor, Akhand Jyoti monthly magazine and President, Swami Vivekanand Yogvidya Mahapeeth.

For his noble contribution towards the spiritual aspect of Indian culture to the world and humanity he is honoured with Life Time Achievement Award at the National Symposium on Science of Holistic Living and its Global Application, being organized by Arogyadham at Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Medical Sciences, Sevagram on 16th & 17th November 2006.
